Educational Background

Official transcripts are required for all coursework completed during the last two years of undergraduate study (i.e. 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours). In addition, transcripts are required for all graduate-level course work. Only transcripts from regionally accredited colleges or universities are acceptable.

Requests for transfer credit for previously completed course work must be evaluated by the program chair and the Graduate Office within the first semester/term of enrollment. After the first term of enrollment, transfer credit will not be awarded for courses completed prior to enrollment at ULV.

List all colleges or universities attended and from which you are requesting transcripts.
(ULV transcripts will be obtained by Graduate Admissions.)
