

Application for Reinstatement Honors Program, University of La Verne

Inactivation Policy. Honors students at the University of La Verne automatically become inactive members of the Honors Program after two consecutive semesters without completion of an Honors course (excluding January Interterm and Summer Sessions).

Readmission Policy. Inactive Honors students may request readmission to the Honors Program by formal application to the Director of the Honors Program. In consultation with the Honors Committee, the Director may reinstate the inactive student. To apply for readmission, an inactive Honors student must fill in the information below and submit this form to the Director of the Honors Program.
